LR69-TR58-05 - PREPARATION OF COURT DOCUMENTS

(A) A party requesting a hearing, trial or continuance only, shall be responsible for preparing a chronological case summary entry which schedules or reschedules, as appropriate, a matter for hearing. Such entries shall be submitted with the Motion for Hearing or Continuance and shall be in lieu of any order scheduling or rescheduling such matters together with sufficient copies and pre-addressed pre-stamped Clerk's envelopes to provide copies to all parties.

(B) The motion for hearing, trial or continuance shall contain a statement estimating how much court time will be required for the hearing or trial.

(C) A party filing any other type of motion shall, at the time of filing, submit a proposed order with sufficient copies and pre-addressed, stamped Clerk's envelopes to serve all parties.

(D) A party agreeing or directed by the Court to prepare an order, judgment or decree, shall do so in accord with the directives of the Court and Trial Rule 58(B). Proposed orders and judgment shall be on pages separate from the motion. Parties in Domestic Relations cases shall submit proposed Dissolution Decree and in all cases calling for child support a Child Support Income Withholding Order.

(E) All CCS entries, orders on judgments shall have, in the lower left hand corner of the signature page, a distribution list with the name and mailing address of each party or attorney to receive a copy of the same.

(F) Every person filing a pleading that requires service shall clearly designate the manner of service, e.g. certified mail or sheriff. If service is to be by certified mail, the person shall tender to the Clerk, a completed certified mail return card and receipt with the cause number typed or printed on the mail return card. Sufficient postage must be provided if service by certified mail is requested after the initial filing of a lawsuit or claim.

LR69-AR12-6 - CONTINUANCES

A. All requests for continuances shall be made as soon as the reason therefor has been discovered or should have been discovered. All motions shall, except in the event of an emergency or in open court, be in writing and on file with the Court no later than ten (10) days prior to the scheduled matter unless the motion is accompanied by an affidavit that the reasons for the continuance have occurred within the ten (10) day period. Exceptions may be granted for matters scheduled with less than ten (10) days notice.

B. Each motion shall contain the reason for the requested continuance, that counsel has contacted opposing counsel and opposing counsel's response to the request, the amount of court time required for the hearing or trial, and shall be accompanied by sufficient copies of a Chronological Case Summary Entry which will allow the Court to notify all parties of rescheduling of the matter. Agreement of counsel does not necessarily mean the motion will be granted.

C. The Court may require any written motion for continuance to be signed by the party requesting the continuance in addition to his or her counsel and may require the motions to be served on the parties as well as the attorneys and on the victim or victim's family in a criminal case.

D. The Court, in its discretion, may assess any costs and expenses necessarily incurred by the Court, the County or parties as a result of continuances or delays.

LR69-AR15-07 LR69-AR12-07 FACSIMILE FILINGS

LR69-TR65-12 EX PARTE EMERGENCY CUSTODY OR EX PARTE GUARDIANSHIPS OF MINOR CHILDREN

Whether in the context of a dissolution of marriage, paternity, guardianship, or any other proceeding, where one is seeking ex parte or emergency custody of a child or ex parte emergency guardianship of a minor child, the following minimum information will be required:

- 1.) A sworn verified motion or petition signed by the person seeking relief.
- 2.) The full name, physical and mailing address of the petitioner or movant, and their relationship to the child or children for whom they are seeking custody or guardianship.
- 3.) The full name, date of birth, and age of the child or children for whom custody or guardianship is being sought.
- 4.) The length of time the child or children have been in the petitioner's or movant's physical custody, and a brief description of the circumstances as to how such physical custody occurred. If the child or children are in another's physical custody, the same information is required including that person's relationship to the child or children.
- 5.) The name and physical, and mailing, address of every other person who has legal or physical custody of the child or claims such right, including, but not limited to, the biological mother, the biological father, or putative father(s). If it is claimed an address is unknown, then the Court shall be advised what efforts have been undertaken to locate said person and their last known physical and mailing address.
- 6.) If any other interested party is represented by counsel, or known to have counsel, what efforts have been undertaken to advise other counsel of the pending ex parte request and other counsel's response.
- 7.) A complete copy of the most recent custody order in effect, if any.
- 8.) A statement whether the person seeking emergency ex parte custody or guardianship has had their visitation or custodial rights to any of said child or children limited, restricted, or suspended in any way by prior court order.
- 9.) The existence of any pending C.H.I.N.S. proceeding or other involvement by a child welfare agency and whether custody proceedings or guardianship proceedings regarding the child or children are pending in or have been filed in another court and, if so, sufficient information to apprise the court of the place and nature of the proceedings.

LR69-FL01-13-CHILDREN COPE WITH DIVORCE SEMINAR

In any dissolution of marriage, paternity or legal separation proceeding where there remain minor children born of the marriage or relationship, both the father and mother shall complete the Children Cope with Divorce program or equivalent program approved by the Court within sixty (60) days after the filing of the petition and file with the Court a certification of completion. Each party shall bear their own costs for the program with an allowance for waiver. No final hearing will be scheduled until both certificates are on file with the Court. Failure to complete the program within the required time period shall be punishable by contempt. Completion of the program shall not be waived except in unusual circumstances approved by the Court. The parties are directed to contact the Visiting Nurse Service within ten (10) days of service of summons at 1-800-248-6540 or (317)-722-8201 to make an appointment to attend the program. Counsel for petitioner is responsible for notification of their clients of the requirements of this rule.

LR69-FL02-14 SUBMISSION OF FINANCIAL DECLARATION FORM

A. Requirement: In all relevant family law matters, including dissolutions, legal separations, paternity and post decree support or maintenance proceedings, the moving party shall prepare and serve a Financial Declaration Form on the opposing party or their counsel within thirty (30) days of the date of the filing of the action. The responding party shall prepare and serve a Financial Declaration Form within twenty (20) days after receipt of service of the moving party's declaration. These time limits may be amended by court order for good cause shown after motion or by written agreement of the parties filed with the Court.

B. Exceptions: The Financial Declaration Form need not be exchanged nor settlement conference conducted if:

- 1.) The parties agree in writing to waive exchange.
- 2.) The parties have executed a written agreement which settles all financial issues.
- 3.) The proceeding is one in which the service is by publication and there is no response.
- 4.) The proceeding is post-decree and concerns issues without financial implications. Provided, however, when the proceeding is post-decree and concerns only an arrearage, the alleged delinquent party shall complete the entire Form, while the support recipient need complete merely that portion thereof which requires specification of the basis of the arrearage calculation (with appropriate supporting documentation); or
- 5.) Where the gross marital estate in a dissolution or legal separation is $5,000.00 or less.

C. Admissibility: Subject to specific evidentiary challenges, the Financial Declaration shall be admissible into evidence upon filing and shall comply with Indiana Administrative Rule 9 and Indiana Rule of Trial Procedure 5(G).

D. Supporting Documents: For the purpose of providing a full and complete verification of income, assets, liabilities and values, each party shall attach to the Financial Declaration Form all information reasonably required and reasonably available. At the minimum, this shall include income tax returns and supporting documentation and current wage records. Reasonably available means that material which may be obtained by letter accompanied with an authorization, but does not mean material that must be subpoenaed or is in the possession of the other party. The Court may require either party to supplement such Financial Declaration with appraisals, bank records, and other evidence to support the values set out therein.

E. Financial Declaration-Mandatory Discovery: The exchange of Forms constitutes mandatory discovery. Thus INDIANA TRIAL RULE 37 sanctions apply. Additionally, pursuant to INDIANA TRIAL RULE 26(e)(2) and (3), the Form shall be supplemented if additional material becomes available.

F. Within ninety (90) days of the date of filing conduct and verify to the Court that a settlement conference between the parties and counsel has been conducted and report to the Court any stipulations or agreement which have arisen from the settlement conference. This section of the rule shall not apply unless both parties are represented by counsel.

G. In all matters involving support, each party shall submit to the Court a completed Child Support Obligation Worksheet with supporting documentation within sixty (60) days of the filing of the petition.

H. The Financial Declaration Form and Child Support Obligation Worksheet is available from the Clerk.

LR69-FL03-15 PRO SE LITIGANTS FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

The Clerk shall distribute a notice provided by the Court to all persons filing a pro se petition for dissolution of marriage together with a copy of LR69-FL02-14 and Financial Declaration Form and, if applicable, LR69-FL01-13 with a brochure for the Children Cope with Divorce program and a Child Support Obligation worksheet and Child Support Guidelines along with a copy of the Indiana Supreme Court Parenting Time Guidelines.
